Mayor Beal was unable to secure ____ nomination at the hands of any party. He held a se-called caucus, but it had no standing in law or principle. His name could not appear on the pallot as a result of the action of that caucus, but is petitioned on by a more handful of votors under a purely teelinical provision of the law. So that by the Mayor's own test he is not included among the "good and ldys) man! who "are only too glad to put saide their personal differences for the rake of bringing about harmony in their racks and victory for their principies." Mayor Beal has celiberately and systematically undertaken to over-ride the rule of the majority and is to-day seeking to defeat the Republican party in this city. Consistency like honesty is

In another article in March, 1805, Mayor Beal said it is "tho head of the publicanism or Democrange" Apply this test as stated by the Mayor himself Regulate the Bowels. Furely Vegetable, and it will be seen that he is absolutely Small all. Small Doe out of the race as a Republican. His name will not appear on the ballot in any connection whatever with the Republican ticket. The voters, therefore, have the authority of Mayor Beal himself that the only Republicanism in this contest for Mayor is represented in the candidacy of Dr. Rebinson who 13 "the head of the ticket." The Mayor has cometimes held that THE WHIG has been severe in characterizing him as a boiter, but we now weigh him in his own scales; and exactly the same result is obtained. He is to-day doing the very things which in 1855 he said no "good and loyal" man

The Republicans who are now asked to fillow in the footsteps of a bolter can and their 'excuse, for decilning in the words of the Mayor, which we have quoted literally. Now is the time for conreflection on the part of these men. Will they abandon the Republican party and become bolters at the distitled at Mayor LYFORD & WOCDWARD, cal recegade when gauged by the very political reast laid down by hitp id 1805? We know a good many "Beal men" in he past who unhesitatingly declare that hey were Republicans long before he BANGOR, was identified with the party, and that . hey will not leave the party slouly because he was afraid to submit bis candilacy to a Republican caucus. Let all who think, allke act together and the politing ticket will be defeated next Monay just as'it was last fall when Mayor Beal led another bolt against the Repubican party. I
